Discover Bangkok in style through the eyes of Banyan Tree

Bangkok, Thailand – March 2016: From iridescent temples and floating markets to dinner on the Chao Phraya River and cocktails overlooking the city; the Thai capital is a bustling, vibrant metropolis waiting to be discovered. Located at its heart is the world-renowned urban retreat of Banyan Tree Bangkok offering guests a base to explore the diverse and lively culture of the city.

Starting the day with a visit to a Buddhist temple is a must, and the Grand Palace is home to a variety of artistic temples and architectural wonders. Away from the hustle and bustle of the city, visitors here will find silence and awe. Tourists can find the most revered Buddha, the Emerald Buddha at the very centre of the grounds.

Approximately 100 kilometres from Bangkok, guests can join in the haggling from boat to boat at the floating market of Damnoen Saduak. Sailing through the busy channels, visitors will find exotic fruits, fresh vegetables and flowers galore; and possibly a bargain or two to take home.

On returning to Banyan Tree Bangkok, an enthralling afternoon begins with Bangkok's 'highest high tea' at Vertigo TOO on the 60th floor, where Champagne Afternoon Tea is accompanied by a menu of authentic delights and an extensive selection of teas.

As the evening draws in, dining on Bangkok's river at its finest aboard Banyan Tree Bangkok's traditional river boat the "Apsara". Offering sumptuous Thai cuisine along the Chao Phraya River, this two and a half hour adventure bestows guests with wonderful views of the city.

To top the night, cocktails-with-a-view can be enjoyed from the 61st floor back at the hotel; freshly made cocktails at Moon Bar are only second to the views across the shimmering skyline.
