PRESS RELEASE

Official Launch of Banyan Tree Huangshan

Singapore, July 2015 - Banyan Tree Huangshan has officially opened in the misty awe-inspiring landscape of Anhui Province, east of China, enshrouded by the great Mount Huangshan. The 10th Banyan Tree in China, it is 70 minutes away from Huangshan city. Cultural adventurers and explorers will be fascinated by the ancient-styled dwellings of Xidi and Hongcun, two UNESCO world heritage sites and the breath-taking Mount Huangshan with its peculiar shaped granite peaks, woody pine trees and hot springs. This perfect harmony of nature and culture embodies Banyan Tree Huangshan's dedication to create a Sanctuary for the Senses amidst picturesque landscapes and rich Chinese history.

In the old Xidi and Hongcun villages, just ten minutes from the resort, you can find traditional Chinese residences dating back to the Ming and Qing dynasty. Their unique combination of simple and exquisite architecture perfectly demonstrates the heritage of the Hui-style culture. As you wander along the village, you will be amazed by the beauty of its boundless hills and winding streams.

The design of Banyan Tree Huangshan embodies the enchanting Hui-style's architecture inspired by traditional Chinese ink paintings. The wooden bamboo carvings found within the hotel tell ancient stories, while others depict the sheer beauty of Mount Huangshan. The wooden roof slopes with its white walls tipped by black scales; finishing in the traditional horse-head style found in the area, provide the resort with a signature local touch that blends in with its surrounding scenery.

Banyan Tree Huangshan is equipped with state-of-the-art facilities. In addition to the poetically inspiring suites and villas, the award-winning Banyan Tree Spa and Banyan Tree Gallery are also not
