Historic location with modern facilities

Known for its hot springs, the resort is located in Nanjing, a historic capital of six dynasties spread over 2,500 years, and built in a mine valley hidden by a cascading cliff-top waterfall. Featuring restorative wellbeing experiences, the hotel offers 115 rooms with scenic valley and cliff views, each with a hot spring pool; an indoor swimming pool with panoramic views of nature; an award-winning Banyan Tree Spa; three dining venues that serve fresh local organic food; and modern meeting facilities for business events.
